

accept the consequences.

“For the wages of sin is death...”- (Rom 6:23)

“...Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power” – (2 Thess 1:9)

It is through realizing our depraved condition before God that we see our need for salvation from this judgment. We do not need salvation from tornadoes, thieves, murderers, or poverty as much as we need salvation from a more eternal condition – sin, death, and the judgment of God against sin.

Find more free resources at:
www.graceambassadors.com

accept the consequences.

“For the wages of sin is death...”- (Rom 6:23)

“...Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power” – (2 Thess 1:9)

It is through realizing our depraved condition before God that we see our need for salvation from this judgment. We do not need salvation from tornadoes, thieves, murderers, or poverty as much as we need salvation from a more eternal condition – sin, death, and the judgment of God against sin.

Find more free resources at:
www.graceambassadors.com

Am I Good Enough to Get to Heaven?

The Bible explains that since we are all descendants of the first man Adam we are all cursed with sin, death, and a short-coming when it comes to righteousness (Romans 3:9-11, 5:12). As a result, God in his justice cannot let any person tainted with unrighteousness into his perfect and eternal home. All unrighteousness is worthy of eternal condemnation in the lake of

Am I Good Enough to Get to Heaven?

The Bible explains that since we are all descendants of the first man Adam we are all cursed with sin, death, and a short-coming when it comes to righteousness (Romans 3:9-11, 5:12). As a result, God in his justice cannot let any person tainted with unrighteousness into his perfect and eternal home. All unrighteousness is worthy of eternal condemnation in the lake of fire (Rev 21:8).

The best way to discover whether you are good enough to go to heaven is to examine how you compare to God's standard of righteousness – the divine law. Used properly, the Bible says that the law will revive any sin found in your nature and will indicate if you are qualified for heaven.

Let's find out how you measure up to the law. Exodus 20:14-17:

"Thou shalt not bear false witness"

"Thou shalt not steal."

"Thou shalt not commit adultery."

"Thou shalt not covet..."

Have you ever told a lie? Have you ever stolen anything? Have you ever looked upon a person with lust? Have you ever desired the possessions of someone else? Even the smallest breaking of fire (Rev 21:8).

The best way to discover whether you are good enough to go to heaven is to examine how you compare to God's standard of righteousness – the divine law. Used properly, the Bible says that the law will revive any sin found in your nature and will indicate if you are qualified for heaven.

Let's find out how you measure up to the law. Exodus 20:14-17:

"Thou shalt not bear false witness"

"Thou shalt not steal."

"Thou shalt not commit adultery."

"Thou shalt not covet..."

Have you ever told a lie? Have you ever stolen anything? Have you ever looked upon a person with lust? Have you ever desired the possessions of someone else? Even the smallest breaking of God's law makes you a liar and in danger of the lake of fire (Rev 21:8); makes you a thief and puts you out of the running for entering the Kingdom of God (1 Cor 6:10); even a fleeting thought, then Jesus says you have committed adultery in your heart (Matt 5:28). These things show the evil condition of your heart wishing to follow after its lustful desires (Eph 2:1-3).

These are just a few of God's laws that are written on the conscious of man, but which we continually break. The Bible says if you 'offend in one point, he is guilty of all' (James 2:10).

Our own unrighteousness before God is revealed through looking at God's law. There are none of us that measure up to God's standard of righteousness, not one (Romans 3:9-11). As a result, we are all condemned because of our sin, and must God's law makes you a liar and in danger of the lake of fire (Rev 21:8); makes you a thief and puts you out of the running for entering the Kingdom of God (1 Cor 6:10); even a fleeting thought, then Jesus says you have committed adultery in your heart (Matt 5:28). These things show the evil condition of your heart wishing to follow after its lustful desires (Eph 2:1-3).

These are just a few of God's laws that are written on the conscious of man, but which we continually break. The Bible says if you 'offend in one point, he is guilty of all' (James 2:10).

Our own unrighteousness before God is revealed through looking at God's law. There are none of us that measure up to God's standard of righteousness, not one (Romans 3:9-11). As a result, we are all condemned because of our sin, and must