

If it is true that appearances can be deceiving then who do we trust? Even more important, what do we believe?

We must go back to studying the source. Learn what the Bible really says. You will find that the answer is the preaching of Jesus Christ according to the revelation of the mystery (Rom 16:25, Eph 3:9).

We cannot teach the Bible any old way, we must have the right Bible rightly divided and taught with a right heart. A failure to do this effects the spiritual growth and eternal destiny of deceived millions (Rom 16:17-18).

Find more free resources at:
www.graceambassadors.com

If it is true that appearances can be deceiving then who do we trust? Even more important, what do we believe?

We must go back to studying the source. Learn what the Bible really says. You will find that the answer is the preaching of Jesus Christ according to the revelation of the mystery (Rom 16:25, Eph 3:9).

We cannot teach the Bible any old way, we must have the right Bible rightly divided and taught with a right heart. A failure to do this effects the spiritual growth and eternal destiny of deceived millions (Rom 16:17-18).

Find more free resources at:
www.graceambassadors.com

Half of Pastors Don't Believe the Bible

George Barna, Christian pollster, reported that only half of the country's Protestant pastors (51%) have a biblical worldview. ~ Barna.org — <http://goo.gl/HFvlg>

Half of Pastors Don't Believe the Bible

George Barna, Christian pollster, reported that only half of the country's Protestant pastors (51%) have a biblical worldview. ~ Barna.org — <http://goo.gl/HFvlg>

Most people expect to go to church to learn about God and the truth of the Bible. No one should fear that the pastor does not believe the Bible. According to some surveys, parishioners should be more cautious.

The modern picture of a false teacher is the cult leader passing out the kool-aid. However, there should be a real concern that today's false teacher looks much more like the average pastor. Research provides the evidence.

While the Bible speaks about false teachers 2000 years ago we should not think this is just an ancient problem. Half of the pastors surveyed denied one or more of the following tenets of a Biblical worldview:

- The Bible is accurate in its teaching.
- Jesus was sinless.
- Satan exists as a real being.
- God is omnipotent and omniscient.

Most people expect to go to church to learn about God and the truth of the Bible. No one should fear that the pastor does not believe the Bible. According to some surveys, parishioners should be more cautious.

The modern picture of a false teacher is the cult leader passing out the kool-aid. However, there should be a real concern that today's false teacher looks much more like the average pastor. Research provides the evidence.

While the Bible speaks about false teachers 2000 years ago we should not think this is just an ancient problem. Half of the pastors surveyed denied one or more of the following tenets of a Biblical worldview:

- The Bible is accurate in its teaching.
- Jesus was sinless.
- Satan exists as a real being.
- God is omnipotent and omniscient.

- Salvation is by grace alone.
- We are responsible to evangelize

Remember this is not the general public but those who stand behind pulpits and preach to you every Sunday. This group is leading, or rather misleading, the doctrinal instruction of millions!

The apostle Paul taught that the front lines of spiritual warfare were fought within the religious community. The Galatians were being deceived by those teaching 'another gospel' (Gal 1:6). Paul was afraid that the Corinthians would fall captive to false teachers preaching 'another Jesus', 'another spirit', and 'another gospel' (2 Cor 11:4).

The Bible also explains that false teachers look like the 'apostles of Christ' and 'ministers of righteousness' (2 Cor 11:13-15).

- Salvation is by grace alone.
- We are responsible to evangelize

Remember this is not the general public but those who stand behind pulpits and preach to you every Sunday. This group is leading, or rather misleading, the doctrinal instruction of millions!

The apostle Paul taught that the front lines of spiritual warfare were fought within the religious community. The Galatians were being deceived by those teaching 'another gospel' (Gal 1:6). Paul was afraid that the Corinthians would fall captive to false teachers preaching 'another Jesus', 'another spirit', and 'another gospel' (2 Cor 11:4).

The Bible also explains that false teachers look like the 'apostles of Christ' and 'ministers of righteousness' (2 Cor 11:13-15).