

temple of the Holy Ghost (1 Cor 3:16). Instead of waiting for an anointing we must all “study to show ourselves approved” (2 Tim 2:15).

It is a detriment to sound doctrine and the ministry of the church for pastors to claim a special anointing. They should either step down or tell you that they have no blessing or calling apart from God’s call to all men.

They may fear if this is known then their words would not hold as much weight with their congregations. This cannot happen. There must be control, right? Learning to take personal responsibility for Bible study starts from the top-down.

Find more free resources at:
www.graceambassadors.com

temple of the Holy Ghost (1 Cor 3:16). Instead of waiting for an anointing we must all “study to show ourselves approved” (2 Tim 2:15).

It is a detriment to sound doctrine and the ministry of the church for pastors to claim a special anointing. They should either step down or tell you that they have no blessing or calling apart from God’s call to all men.

They may fear if this is known then their words would not hold as much weight with their congregations. This cannot happen. There must be control, right? Learning to take personal responsibility for Bible study starts from the top-down.

Find more free resources at:
www.graceambassadors.com

What Pastors Should Tell You

It is not unusual to hear pastors, the good and bad, young and old, liberal and conservative claim a special anointing from God. This anointing supposedly gives them God-ordained authority amidst a group of believers and a more ‘blessed’ opinion.

The Biblical truth is that those serving as pastors or teachers are on the same spiritual standing with God as every other member of the church.

What Pastors Should Tell You

It is not unusual to hear pastors, the good and bad, young and old, liberal and conservative claim a special anointing from God. This anointing supposedly gives them God-ordained authority amidst a group of believers and a more ‘blessed’ opinion.

The Biblical truth is that those serving as pastors or teachers are on the same spiritual standing with God as every other member of

A pastor cannot forgive sins. He does not have a unique communication with God. He does not have a secret source of knowledge not accessible to every other member in the Bible. He is not your mediator to God in any way (1 Tim 2:5).

He does not have a gift for holiness, nor does he have more resistance to the flesh. He can be wrong. He needs support. He can fail.

Many pastors will reference their special anointing to God's "call" on their life to minister, but has not God called all men to do his will? (1 Tim 2:4; 1 Thess 4:3)

If a pastor resigns has he denied the call of God on his life? The answer is no.

Paul says that bishops are those who are blameless and desire the office (1 Tim 3:1). Yet, there are pastors who teach that desire is not enough, one must be supernaturally

the church.

A pastor cannot forgive sins. He does not have a unique communication with God. He does not have a secret source of knowledge not accessible to every other member in the Bible. He is not your mediator to God in any way (1 Tim 2:5).

He does not have a gift for holiness, nor does he have more resistance to the flesh. He can be wrong. He needs support. He can fail.

Many pastors will reference their special anointing to God's "call" on their life to minister, but has not God called all men to do his will? (1 Tim 2:4; 1 Thess 4:3)

If a pastor resigns has he denied the call of God on his life? The answer is no.

Paul says that bishops are those who are blameless and desire the office (1 Tim 3:1). Yet, there are pastors who teach that desire is not enough, one must be supernaturally anointed. This is job security. The honest ones will admit that they do not hear God's voice or feel the anointing described in 1 John 2:20 and 27.

"But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things."

Pastors who claim an anointing are fraudulently keeping their congregations from their capability to minister by creating a priest class. It was only in the Old Testament covenant with Israel that God appointed a mediating priest class. Pastors today are not priests of any covenant made with Israel (1 Tim 2:5).

The anointing of the Holy Ghost described by John was part of the supernatural knowledge provided for Israel under the New Testament (John 14:6, Mark 13:11, Acts 2:4).

Today, every member of the body has access to God's words in the Bible and is the anointed. This is job security. The honest ones will admit that they do not hear God's voice or feel the anointing described in 1 John 2:20 and 27.

"But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things."

Pastors who claim an anointing are fraudulently keeping their congregations from their capability to minister by creating a priest class. It was only in the Old Testament covenant with Israel that God appointed a mediating priest class. Pastors today are not priests of any covenant made with Israel (1 Tim 2:5).

The anointing of the Holy Ghost described by John was part of the supernatural knowledge provided for Israel under the New Testament (John 14:6, Mark 13:11, Acts 2:4).

Today, every member of the body has access to God's words in the Bible and is the